AUDITIONS 2024

FONDS INSTRUMENTAL

Aware that acquiring a quality personal instrument is a major difficulty for young musicians, due to the high cost, and that many of them do not have access to one, the association Musique & Vin au Clos Vougeot has decided to create an Instrumental Fund to help young artists at the start of their career or at the end of their higher studies.

Since the creation of the Instrumental Fund in 2010, over 30 instruments have been commissioned from internationally renowned luthiers such as Charles Coquet, Stefan-Peter Greiner, Patrick Robin, Gunter Seifert, Petr Sledacek, Antoine Gonon, Franck Ravatin, Apostol Kaloferov and Bernard Sabatier.

The Fund is also enriched by instruments on loan from private individuals.

AUDITIONS 2024

For the 2024 auditions, the Instrumental Fund will be loaning 9 instruments for periods of 1 to 3 years:

- a violin by Nicolas CAUSSIN (18th century - French school)
- a Tyrolean violin (18th century "Testore" model)
- a violin by Charles COQUET
- a violin by Gunther SIEFERT
- a viola by Charles COQUET ( 40 cm)
- a viola by Charles COQUET ( 43 cm - copy of Gérard Caussé's Gasparo da Salo)
- a viola by Claude MACABREY ( 40,5 cm - Guarneri model )
- a cello by Gunther SIEFERT
- a cello by Roland HOUEL ( Gofriller copy)

To select the young musicians who will have the chance to benefit from the loan of a string instrument from the collection, the association organizes annual auditions.
